This book is a tribute to memories
Dedication . . Honor . . Fame . . Spirit
Homecoming . . roaring bonfire
The glory of a crown
The book review due tomorrow
Long hours of rehearsal
The car packed streets
A typewriter chattering at 2:30 a.m.
Halls . . the clamour and the hush
The foul smells from the lab
The noon rush
The victory bell
The last game
A hero's tears at half-time
A crushed corsage
The click of high heels . . the rustle of a formal
Moonlight and a goodnight kiss
. . The Crest is a tribute to all these images.
A memory of a moment . .
a day . . a year.

Linda,
To a real sweet girl
Hist'ry class last year.
Good luck
Always!
Love ya,
Kyp

Linda, Remember that we

I didn't know you this year, but I'm sure you were a nut last year, too. Be a good kid and don't wait too long to get your Pink & white & yellow slips signed or you'll never make it!
Good luck
Vic

Linda,
You're a real neat girl and I hope you'll always be my friend.
Best of luck.

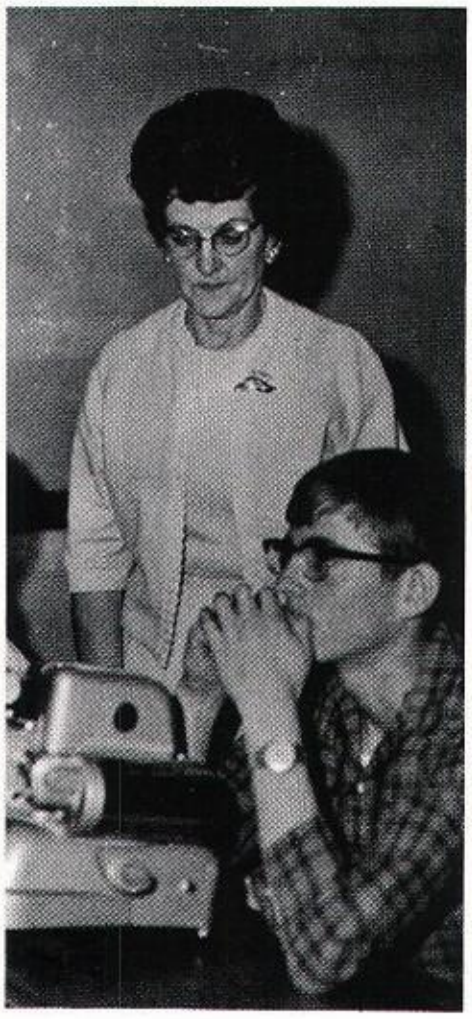
JOSEPH HYING, Latin II.

Friendly Persuasion Used by English Teachers

English instructors at Creston Senior High added enjoyment to assignments by allowing creative inspirations to take over. Rafts similar to the one Huck Finn floated down the Mississippi, character sketches, both written and drawn, panel discussions about novels read, and crossword puzzles were a few of the projects some of the students completed.



HELEN POSTEN, Reading.

HARLEY JOENS, Sophomore English and American Literature.

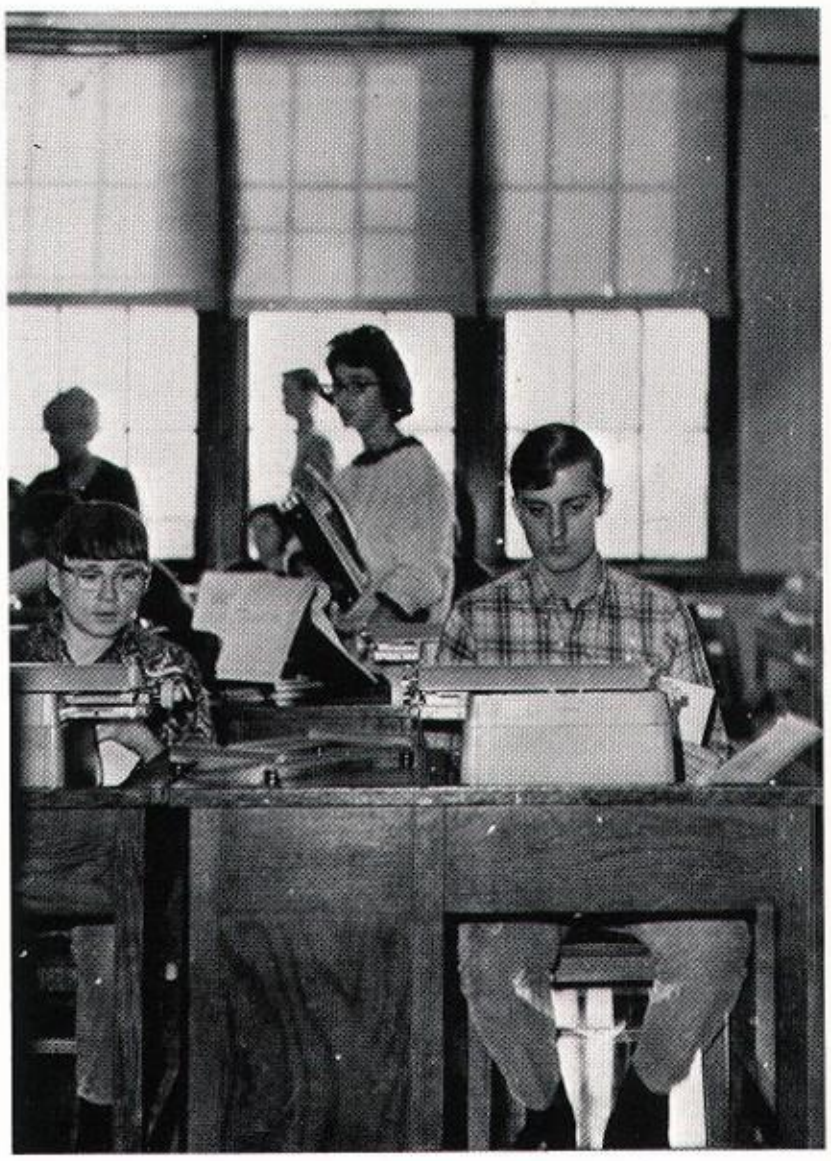
LARRY TURBOT, English Literature and Speech I and II.

LOUISE BREWER, Sophomore English.

DARLINE GREEN, Senior English, journalism, and American Literature.

Busy Students Study Business

Angie Hook receives help from Rita Schmitter who teaches typing, shorthand, and business law.



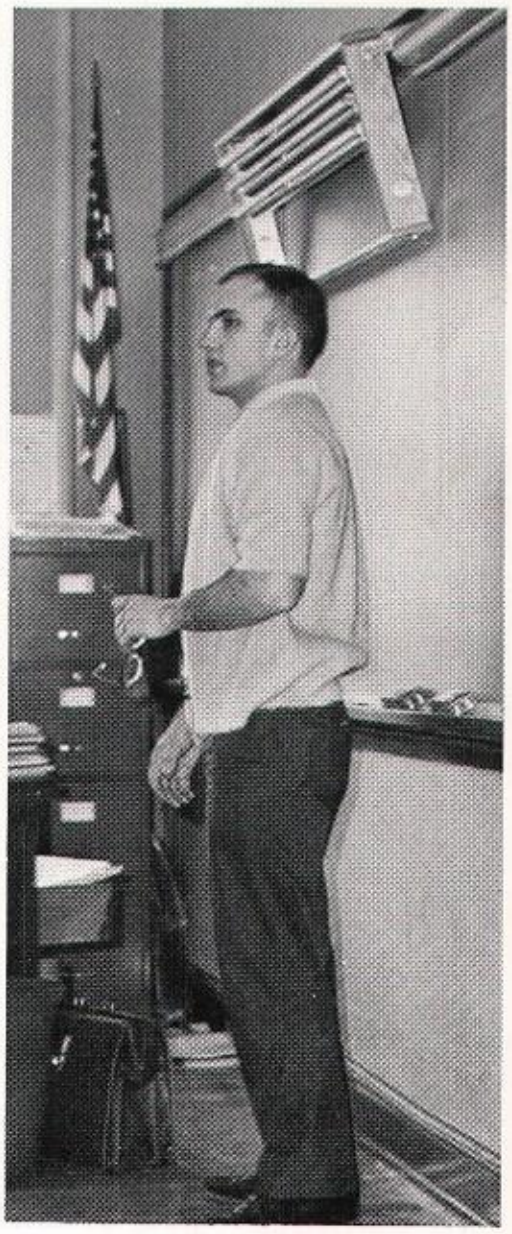
This busy scene is typical of the average day in the typing room.

CAROL WASSENBURG, bookkeeping and typing instructor, helps Connie Holmes with a typing problem.

Pat Allen, Mary Thomas, and Michelle Wonn practice typing and adding long columns of numbers.

LINDA ARNBURG, government.

CATHERINE MUELLER, world history, American Literature, and economic geography.



DARRELL NORDHAGEN, U.S. History, world history.

Social studies students found themselves challenged in many areas. Government students completed a Civil Defense course. The U.N. Test was taken by Juniors Angie Kafka, Sandra Diers, and Doug Coen. Greg Jeffreys was the winner in the Time Current Events Test.

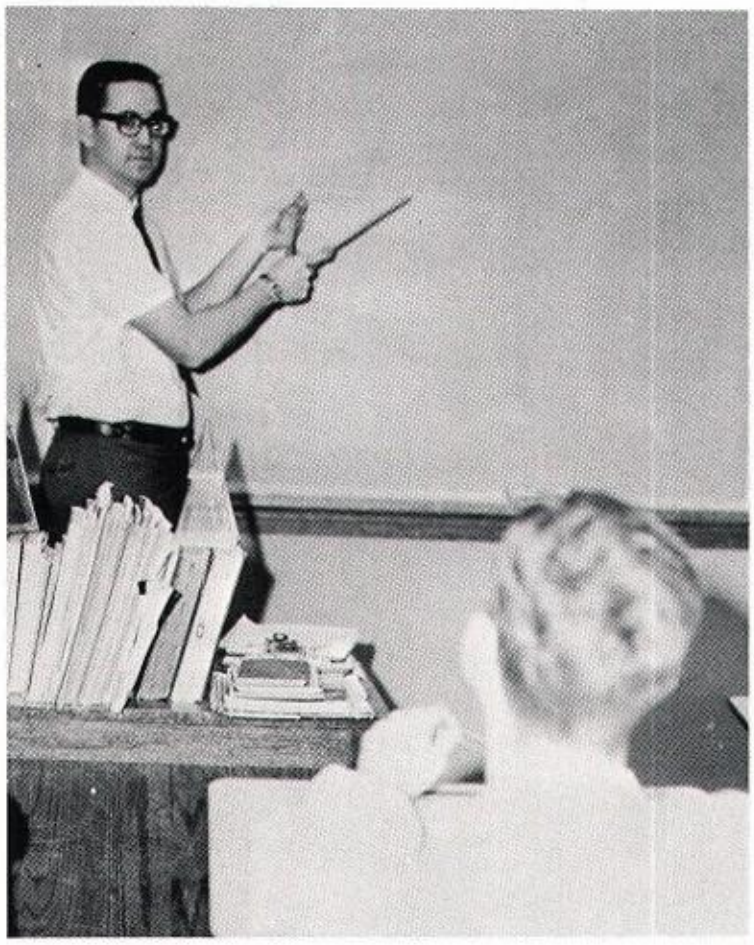
Social Science Students Reap Rewards

LARRY JANNINGS, U.S. History, sociology.

Winners in the annual Voice of Democracy Contest are Karl Knock, third; Charles Brown, first; and Jere Francis, second.

Charlotte Woods, Lin Cornelison, Angela Kafka, and Martha Schrodt proudly display their projects which they were required to construct for William Baldwin's geometry classes.

Students Use Euclid's Laws For Projects



WILLIAM BALDWIN, geometry instructor.

DAVID KOOS, senior math and Algebra II instructor.

Eager Scientists Consider Future

CHARLES EILERS, biology instructor, observes Connie Hawks and Mark Hayes as they dissect an earthworm.

DAVID GILBERT, chemistry and physics instructor.

ROBERT NEWELL and MIKE FORBES, a student teacher from Northwest Missouri State, instructed CHS students in the correct driving methods.

Students Learn The Proper Way To Drive

Above Phil Cuningham, Anita Wear, Scott McKinnie, and Kathy Kirkman listen intently as MR. NEWELL points out the mechanical workings of a car.

Left Mike Wolfe works energetically to clean the Drivers Ed car, as MR. NEWELL and Scott Hook look on.

MISS HALLIE EKBLAD, CHS art instructor, explains some of the techniques of creating a good sketch to Paul Boyden.

Jane Evans (above) and Kathy Herzog (below) work in oils, following the French impressionistic style of the 19th century.

The Pleasures of Art

The art students show their creativeness by decorating bulletin boards for the halls.

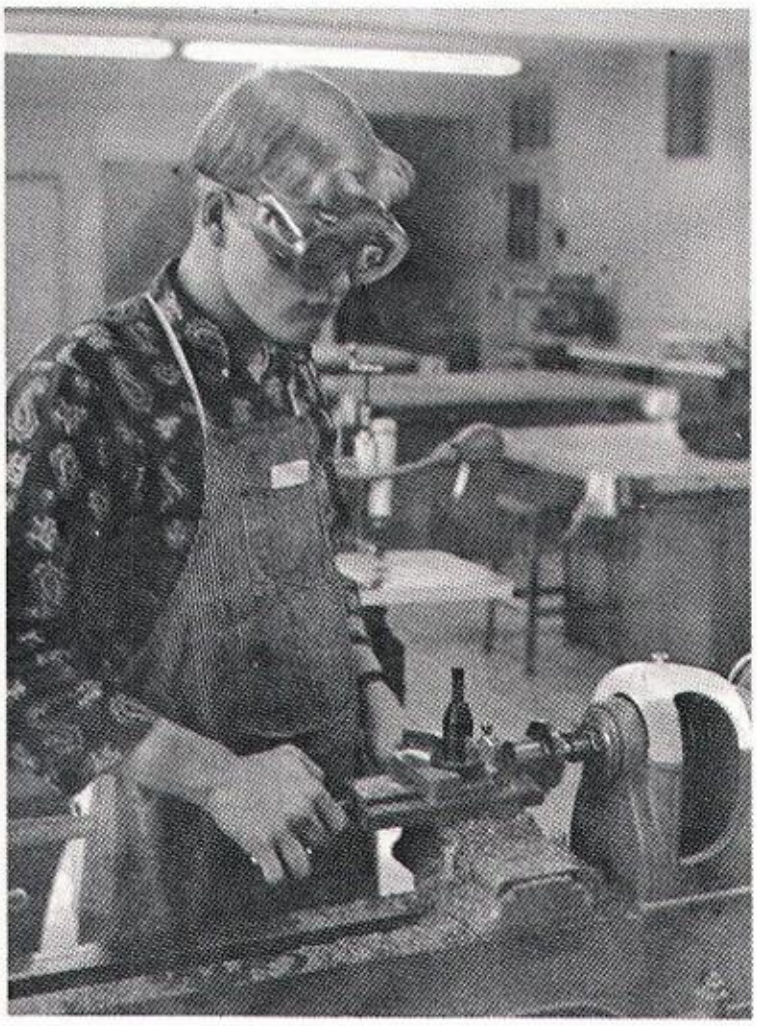
MR. EVERETT KIESTER, agriculture teacher.

FFA Boys Prepare for Future

Russ Johnson, Dave Linderman, and Denny Abel inspect the soil for its future use.



Dick Schrodt makes a pattern on the wood lathe to use in making a mold.

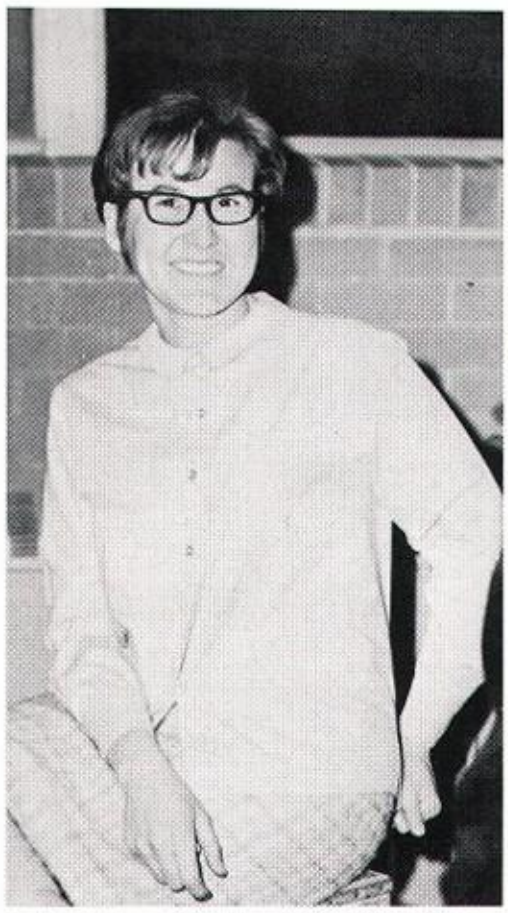
Don LeFebvre looks on as Dan Wichart cuts a dado joint on a cabinet top.

Shop Boys Build for Tomorrow

Steve Sullivan and Dave Bramow pour molten metal into a mold.

MR. JEROME HRUSKA, metals and woodworking teacher.

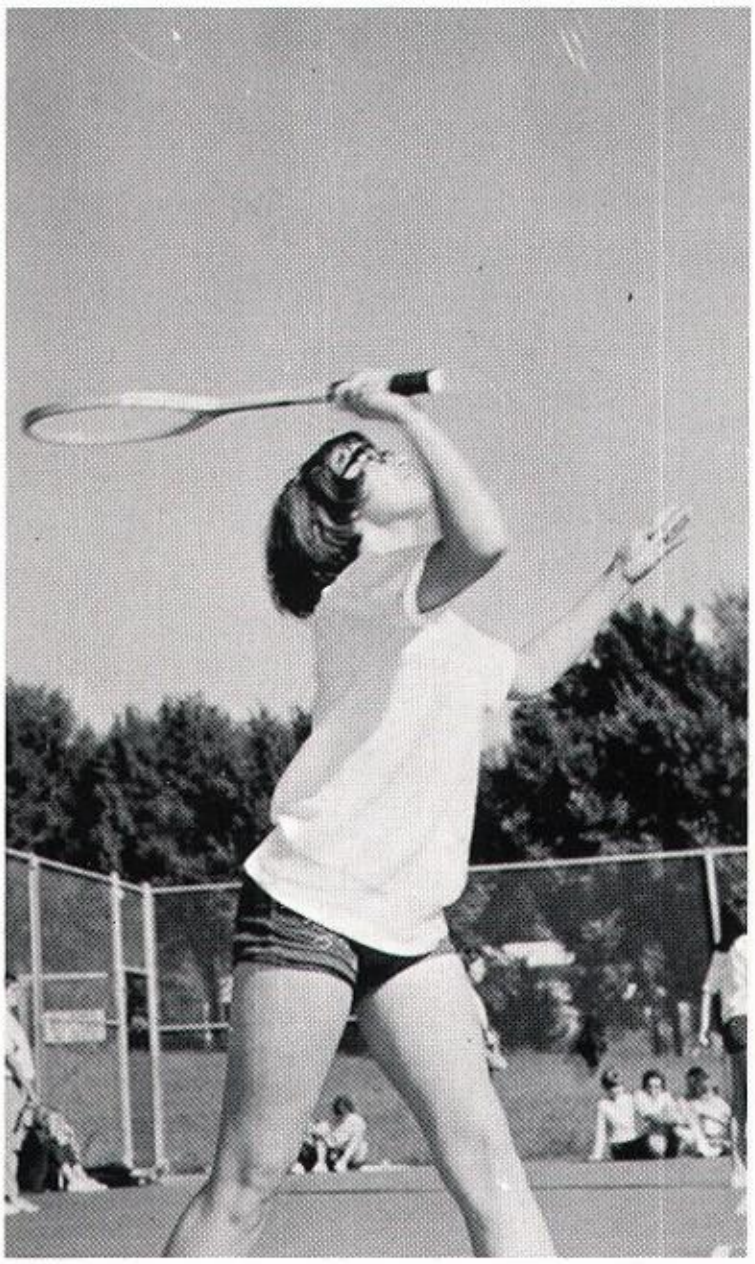
MR. DONALD BUTLER, woodworking and drafting teacher.



ELLEN TURBOT, Girl's Physical Education.

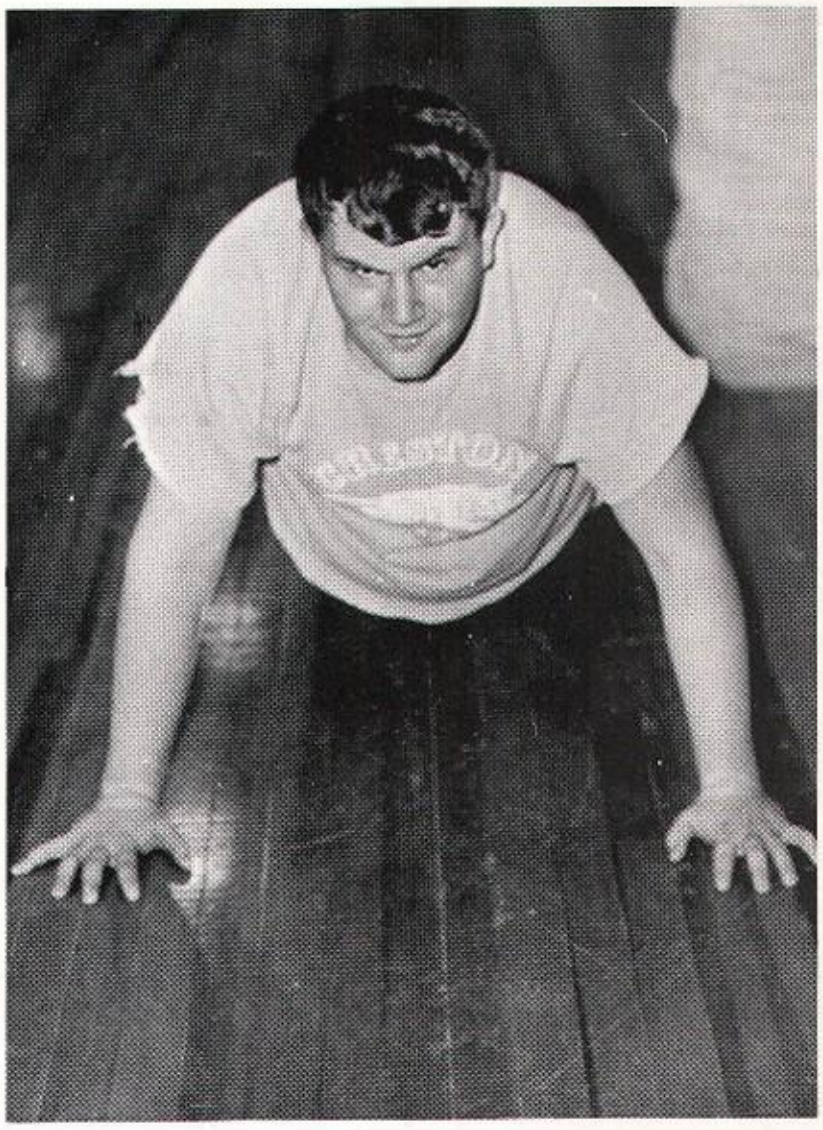
Kathy Kuta attemps to get past the opposing team's guards to make a shot.

Physical Education Spurs Both Sexes

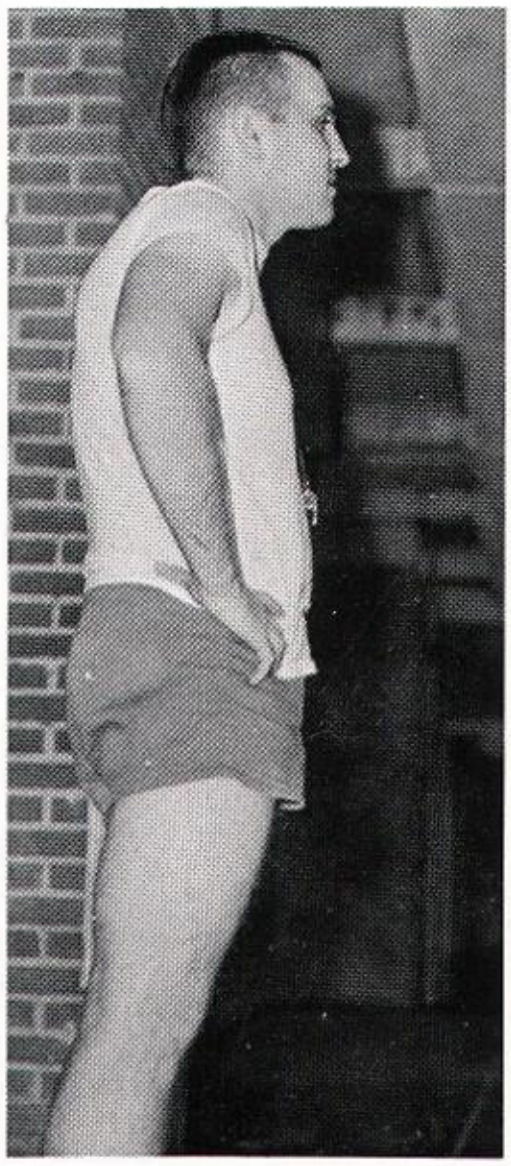


As Mrs. Turbot looks on, Lynda Eddy, Karen Tullis, and Lynn Sandeman keep score during basketball tournaments.

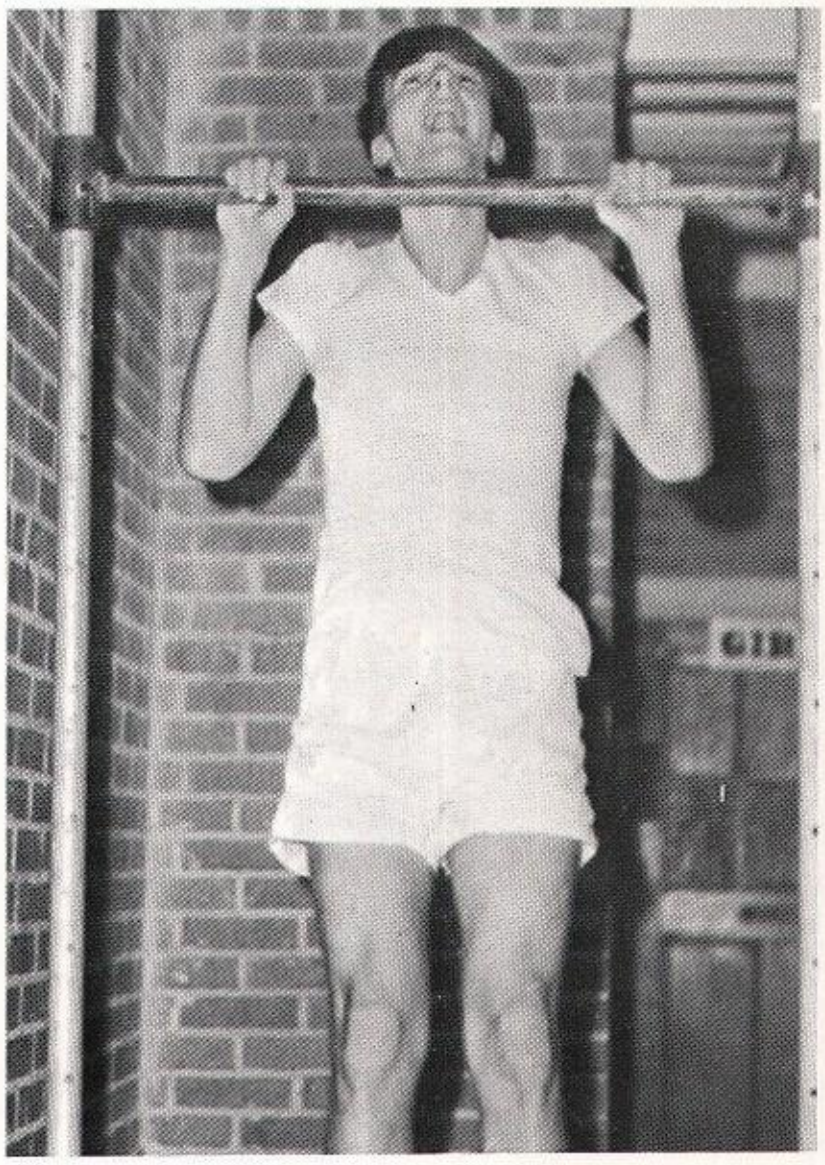
DICK SCARDA, Boy's Physical Education.



John Carl gives a look of frustration as he atempts a gruelling pushup.



MICHAEL FORBES, student teacher from NWMSC, keeps a careful watch over the boys to make sure there's no slacking off.



Phil Cunningham groans as he finally does a chin-up.

Home economics instructor DOROTHY PEAK watches as Debbie Priebe and Peggy Tackett pin and measure a hem for Linda Stauffer.

Homemakers Prepare For Future

Seniors Karen Kneedler, Joan Lowenburg, and Kathy Cundiff model the outfits they wore in the spring style show.

Joyce Hartsook, Sue Sevier, and Marcia O'Rliey baked a special cake for Mrs. Peak, Roy Parsons, and Fred Franklin to sample.

Students are accustomed to janitor Frank Taylor's constant smile.

Head custodian Jesse Tillman is always at work keeping things running smoothly.

This pose has become a familiar one for janitor Henry Schroeder. Not pictured is janitor Eugene Owen.

The buses at CHS make their rounds every morning. Bus drivers include Burton Ambrose, Dale Gilmon, Duane Buxton, Harvey Chapman, Russell Henry, Malcolm Hodge, Clifford Kiesling, Robert Kiley, Floyd Larkens, Willis Ray, Marvin Richardson, Gene Trost, and John Willets.

Keep CHS Beautiful

Cooks Opal Noble, Emma Walters, Ferne Jackson, and Doris Hood offer a well-balanced meal for students participating in the school hot lunch program.

INA NAPIER,
vice-principal.

Carol Frazier, helps Miss Napier and Miss Sweeney in checking the attendance and taking a message.

CAROLYN SWEENEY, secretary to the principal.

Office Helpers Perform Many Duties at CHS

Seven office girls who aid Miss Napier are Gloria King, Marty Steinbaugh, Marcia O'Riley, Marcena Baily, Carol Frazier, Gretchen Lines, and Angie Kafka. Their tasks include checking attendance, taking messages, and delivering lunches and lost books.

Nine students who help Miss Van Tress keep the library in running order are Sharon Lewis, Vicki Harris, Roger Daub, Janet Wolf, Kathren Schrodt, Lela Kepner, Margaret Wimmer, Karen Maeder, and Sandie Stevens.

Students Devote Many Hours As Librarians

RUTH VAN TRESS,
school librarian.

Roger Daub, Kathryn Schrodt, and Lela Kepner aid Miss Van Tress in finding overdue books and checking in magazines and papers.

GENE C. HERTZ, sueprintendent.

LIONEL FOLEY, principal.

Administration Welcomes

MISS BERNA BERRY, secretary.

MRS. CLYDE (JUANITA) KINKADE and MRS. GEORGE (LUENA) BICKETT, secretaries.

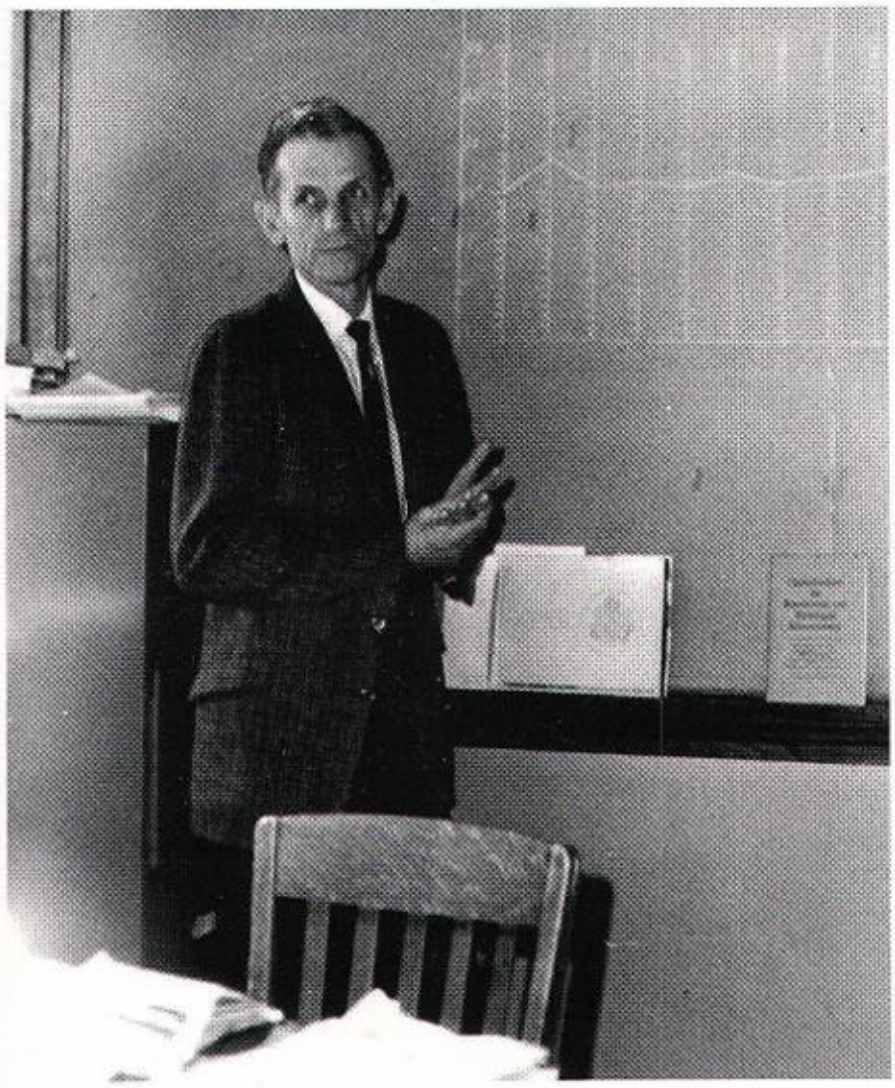
5 Year Band Instructor



GERALD VAN ARKEL, Counselor.

LEONARD H. KUHRE, Curriculum Director.

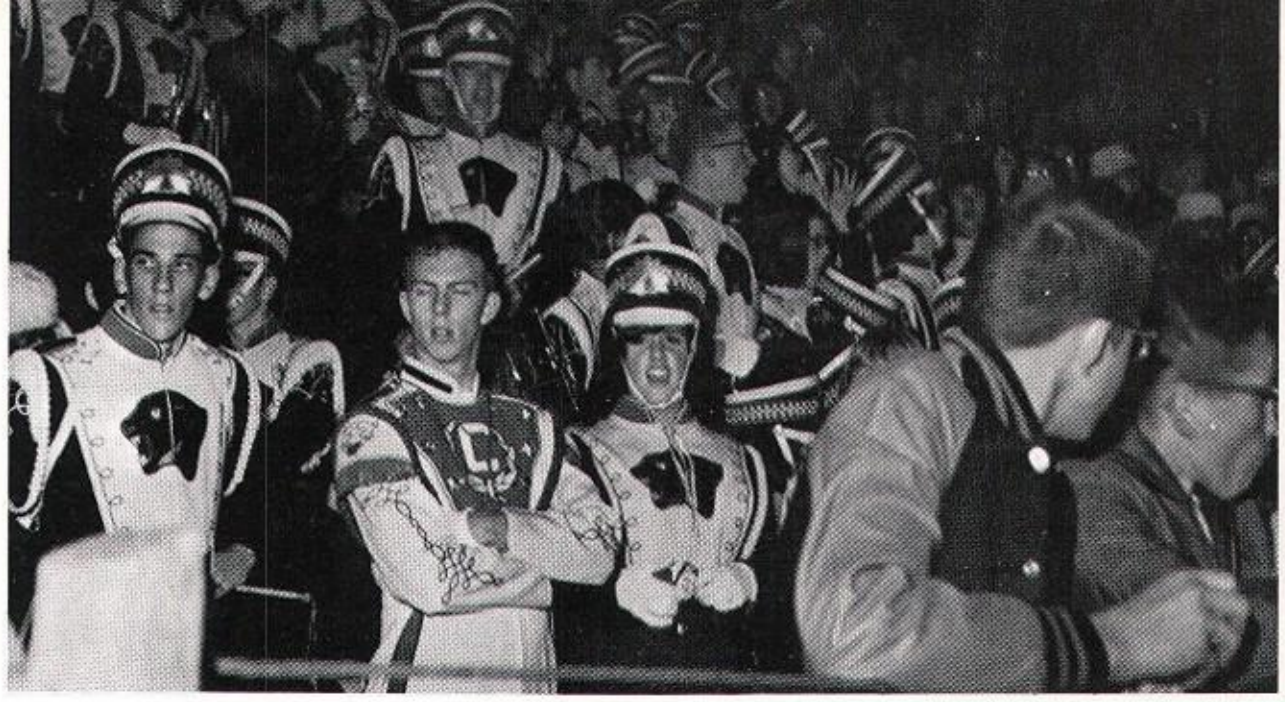
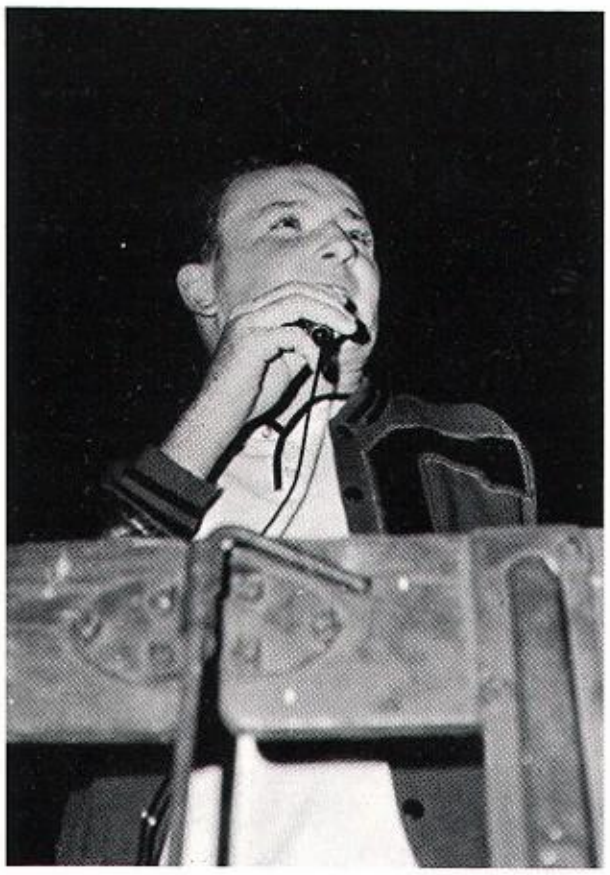
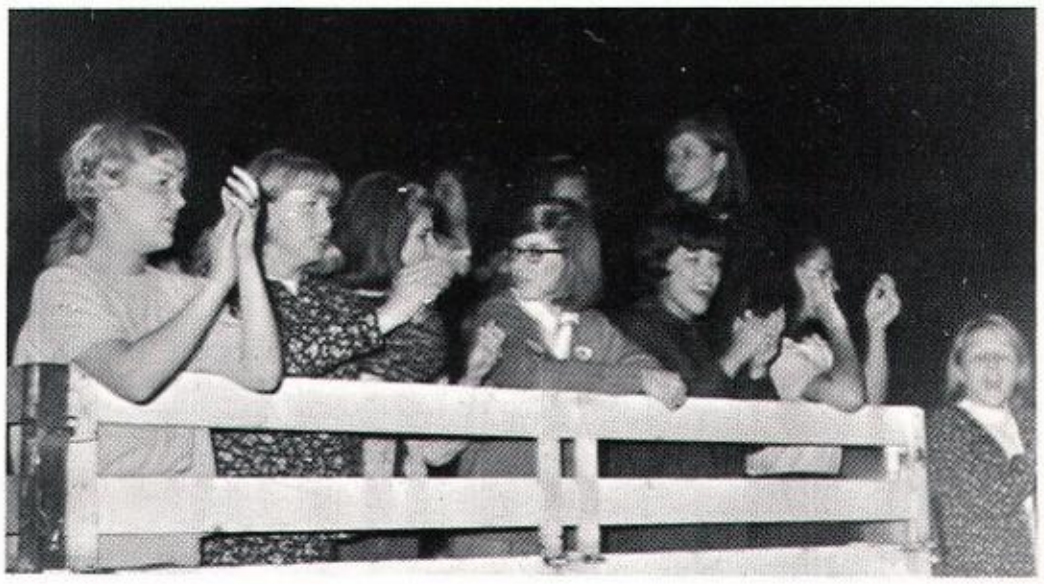
HONOR

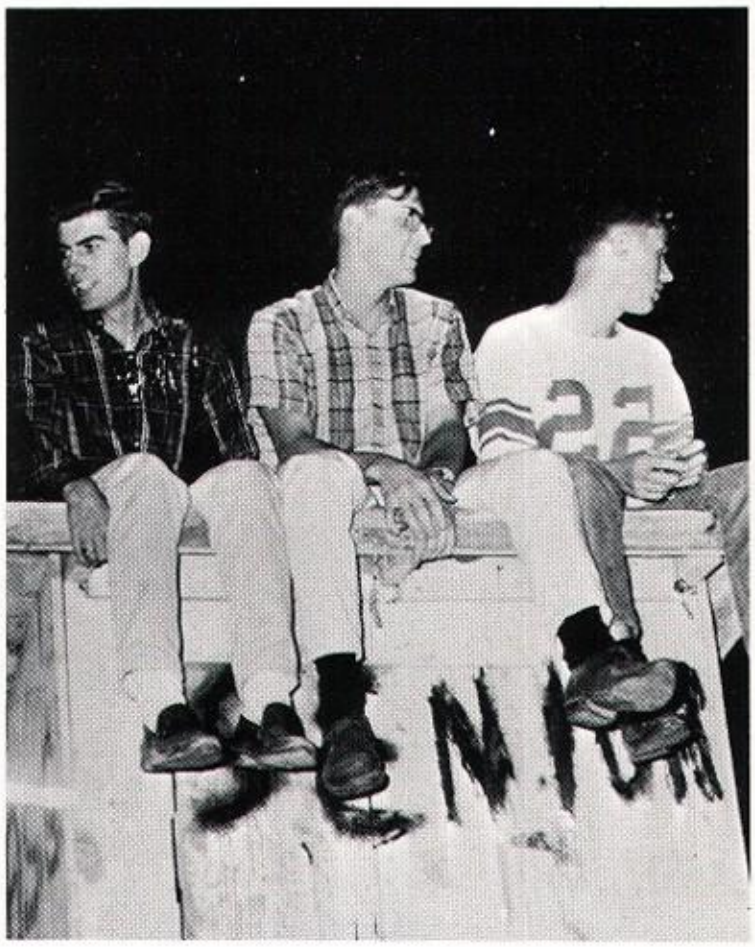




Senior letterman Bill Hayes gives pep talk at bonfire activities.



Cheers came from all over the field and this truck was no exception. Here Senior girls participate in a victory yell.



Frank Riley, Rick Martin, and Dave Tripp watch the excitement on top of an old outhouse.

Cheerleaders began festivities with a death march above. Below, the bonfire rages as the largest in CHS history.

Students finished pre-game activities with a large snake dance to the business district.

The Homecoming game starts with a bang as Fred Calvin dashes through the hoop.

Queen Angie Reigns

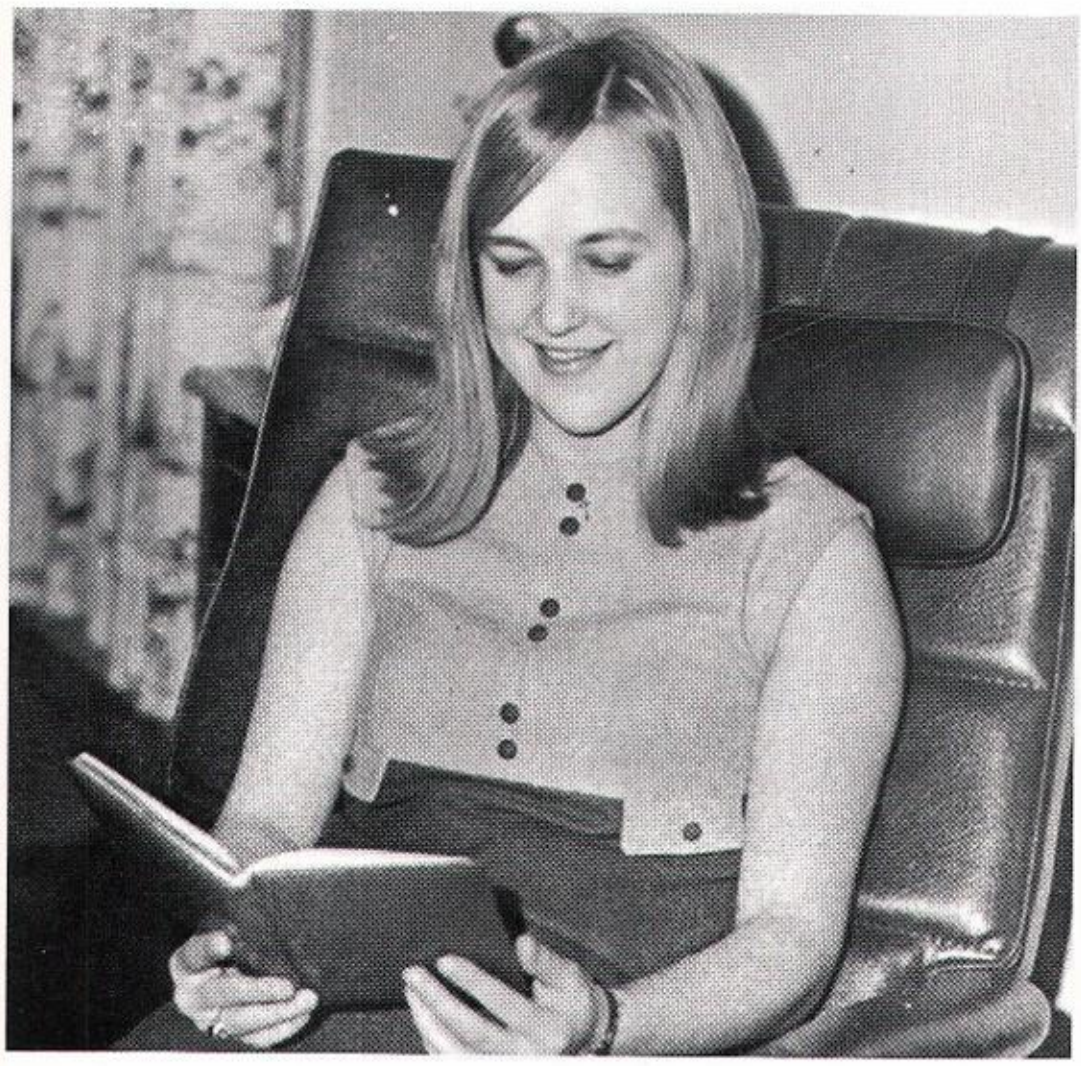
Queen Angie and escort Tom Rouh stroll through the wishing well as the band plays.

The Creston High School Marching Band adds sparkle to the Homecoming parade.

Mr. Foley and Dawn Buxton, student council president, discuss plans for next year's activities as Jeff Brotherton, vice president, pulls up a chair to join in the conversation.

Student Council Introduces "Hootenanny"

Student Council members for 1966-1967 are back row: Teri Konecne, Lynn Floyd, Kelly McCafferty, John Beecher, Dale Gordon, Karl Knock, Charlie Lee, and Linda Winkler. Middle row: Kaye Sandeman, Rozlin Webb, Sandee Hoyt, Ann Van Arkel, Lynn Sandeman, Susan Osmun, Pam Gidley, and Kathy Brotherton. Front row: Don Herbert, treasurer, Doug Rall, secretary, Jeff Brotherton, vice-president, nad Dawn Buxton, president.



Mia Dehopere, AFS sponsored foreign exchange student, quietly reflects some American literature. Mia finds life at CHS much less restricted than at her high school in Belgium. She makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Caldwell.

Foreign exchange student Rosa Llanos came to CHS from Santiago, Chile. Here Rosa sits in the home of her American family, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Boyd, beside her treasures from home.

Mr. Kimmel accompanies Mary Jo Martin with his guitar at the Student Council's first "Hootenanny." An enthused audience listened to the New Frontier Four, a folk group from Indianola.

Previous student council members Jim Hardman, Mike Smith, Don Herbert, and Doug Coen presented an entertaining skit to those who attended the annual icebreaker dance sponsored by the student council.

New Director Adds Sparkle to Vocal Music Department

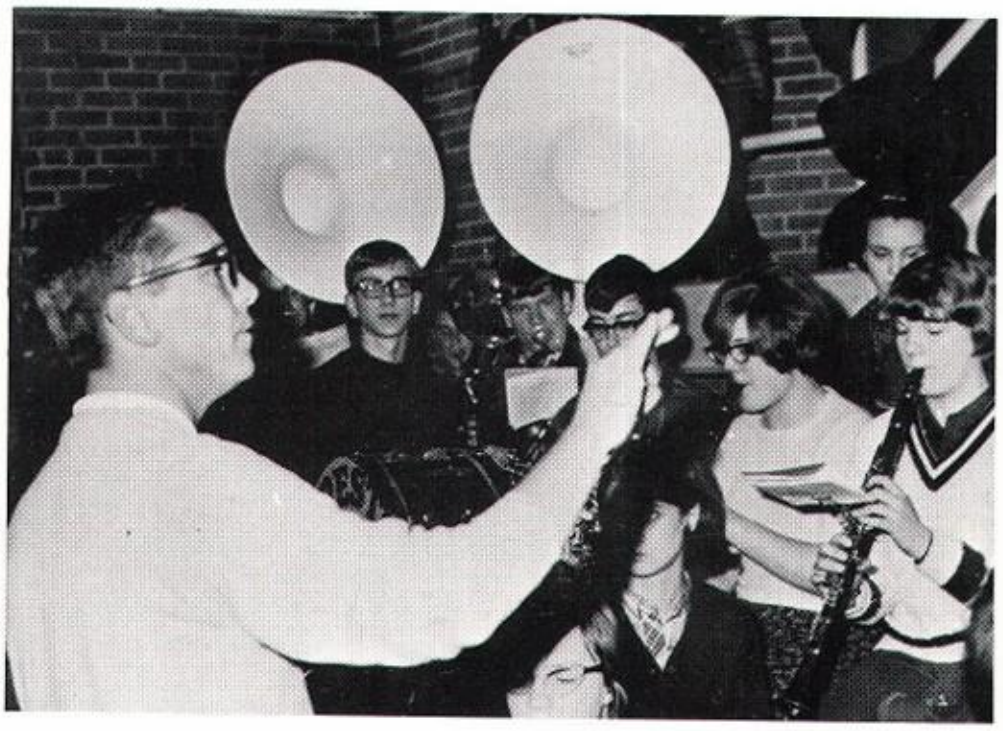
Chorus members who performed in a Christmas and spring concert as well as school Christmas, Easter, and Veteran's Day programs are: Front row, Lynda Winter, Jane Harpin, Jone Franklin, Teri Konecne, Barb Griffey, Debbie Weed, Kathy Eyberg, Kathy Lawton, Eva Toledo, Scott McKinney, Larry Waltersdorf, Jim Kinkade, Jeff Harrison, Arlin Beemer, Dan Coen, Jane Evans, Mary Jo Martin, Connie Hawks, Judy Downing, Sherry Betts, Becky Francis, Janette Mickey, Mary Cochran, Helen McGinnis, Lois Pitt, and LaDonna Clem; Second row, Gwen Koether, Barb Benson, Joyce Kingery, Sandy Long, Linda Hodge, Wendy Wykoff, Sheri Kinkenon, Dawn Huey, Barb Boyd, Linda Trenkle, Denise Huey, Dean Hultquist, Rocky Fowler, Jere Francis, Larry Fogle, Tom Bowers, Kirby Burchett, Raymond Marsh, Sandy McBay, Connie Holmes, Marcia Rule, Mary Lynn Hayes, Janet Lamb, Carolyn Deacon, and Teresa Clem; Third row, Cathie Weed, Lynnda Eddy, Mary Burkhalter, Barb Noble, Debbie Purdum, Jan Looney, Carol Lauffer, Vickie Blazek, Glennda Pennebaker, Nancy Kessler, Ron Miller, Mark Raymond, John Miller, Tom Pontow, Steve McCann, Hal Petznick, Mike Dudley, Rhonda Fry, Teresa Misner, Jule Sturzenegger, Jean Beatty, Beth Anderson, and Kay Anderson; Fourth row, Joan Glade, Kathy Starry, Pat Grinnell, Sharon Smith, Bev Wilson, Linda Winkler, Phyllis Spring, Cathy Luther, Charlotte White, Alice Wolfe, Julie Berg, Carol Bailey, Donna Rasmussen, Kirk McCann, Andy Hoskinson, Gary Boortz, Rick Francis, Charlie Brown, Pat Double, Dan Huey, Bernie Bickett, Dick Hurd, Susan Sevier, Beth Rice, Janette Giles, Jane Caldwell, Kathy Laird, Kathren Schrodt, and Karen Kneedler.

The choir staff which included Vice-president Denise Huey, Charlie Brown, Director Jim Kimmel, Jere Francis, President Mary Jo Martin, Sandy McBay, and Jone Franklin aided Mr. Kimmel in preparing for concerts, music festival, the Christmas cantata, and "Bye Bye Birdie".

The girl's barbershop quartet composed of Connie Hawks, Denise Huey, Jone Franklin, and Jane Harpin sang in the Crest Talent Show, Little All-State Vocal Festival, and the Home Economics style show as well as for many local civic organizations.

Mary Jo Martin, Sandy McBay, and Patty Grinnell sang in a trio which performed in the Crest Talent Show and in the Christmas concert.

Band Demonstrates



DAVID RISSLER,
instrumental music.

Musicianship and Spirit

Drum major Bob Wichhart led the Panther Marching Band to a Division I rating at State Marching Band Contests his sophomore, junior and senior years.

Band Queen Dawn Buxton was elected by the members of the band to represent the Panther Marching Band at the Clarinda Band Jamboree. Her escort was Doug Rall.

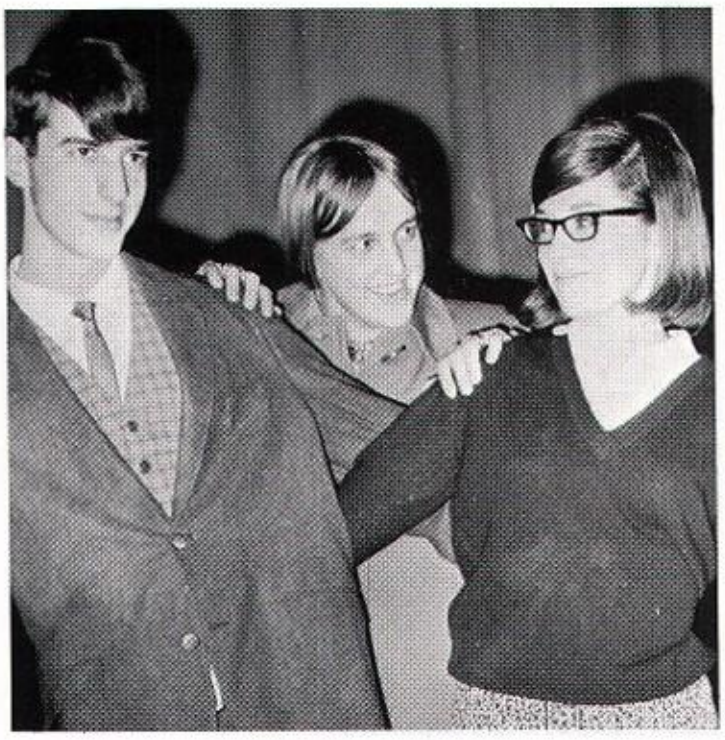
Eight attractive twirlers who stepped in time to the marching band are: first row, Kathy Kirkman, Pat Baker, and Lynn Buchanan; second row, Vickie Blazek, Reva Vicker, Pam Paxson, Wendy Wykoff, and Pam Schrodt.

Musicians Work Hard for Special Honors

The best vocalists and instrumentalists from certain individual schools compete in the All-State Music Concert. CHS participants this year were back row: Rocky Fowler, Mary Jo Martin, Pat Grinnell, and Andy Hoskinson. Front row: Phil Cunningham, Kathy Brotherton, Mark Reed, and Jere Francis.

This year Kathy Brotherton received the Arion Award. This Award is given to the most outstanding musician in the CHS band.

Those receiving Division I ratings in the annual state music contest were: three flute soloists, a clarinet soloist, two French horn soloists, one alto sax soloist, two flute trios, a clarinet trio, a woodwind trio, a sax quartet, a trombone quartet, a brass sextet, and four vocal soloists. Kathy Brotherton received a I+ rating on her flute solo.



Phil Cunningham as Albert, Mia Dehopere as his overly-protective mother, and Connie Hawks as his secretary and girlfriend had leading roles in "Bye Bye Birdie".

John Miller played the singing idol Conrad Birdie who is drafted into the Army.

CHS Bids Farewell to Conrad Birdie

Many hours of hard work by cast and production crews attributed to the unexpected success of "Bye Bye Birdie". Capacity crowds were delighted by the excellent Feb. 23 and 25 performances. Vocal music instructor James Kimmel directed the musical.

Charlie Brown, Patty Grinnell, Mary Jo Martin, and Arlin Beemer try to adjust to the fact that they're going to be on Ed Sullivan.

Conrad's most avid fans boo and hiss at their boyfriends who are jealous of Conrad's popularity.

The performers seem tense in the moments before the Ed Sullivan Show in which Conrad is to bestow his last kiss upon Kim MacAfee, played by Mary Jo Martin.

The telephone scene was one of the most appealing parts of the musical.

Tri-M Inducts Thirteen New Members

Mark Reed, Arlin Beemer, Diana McGill, Lynn Floyd, and Andy Hoskinson (not pictured) were inducted into Tri-M in the spring.

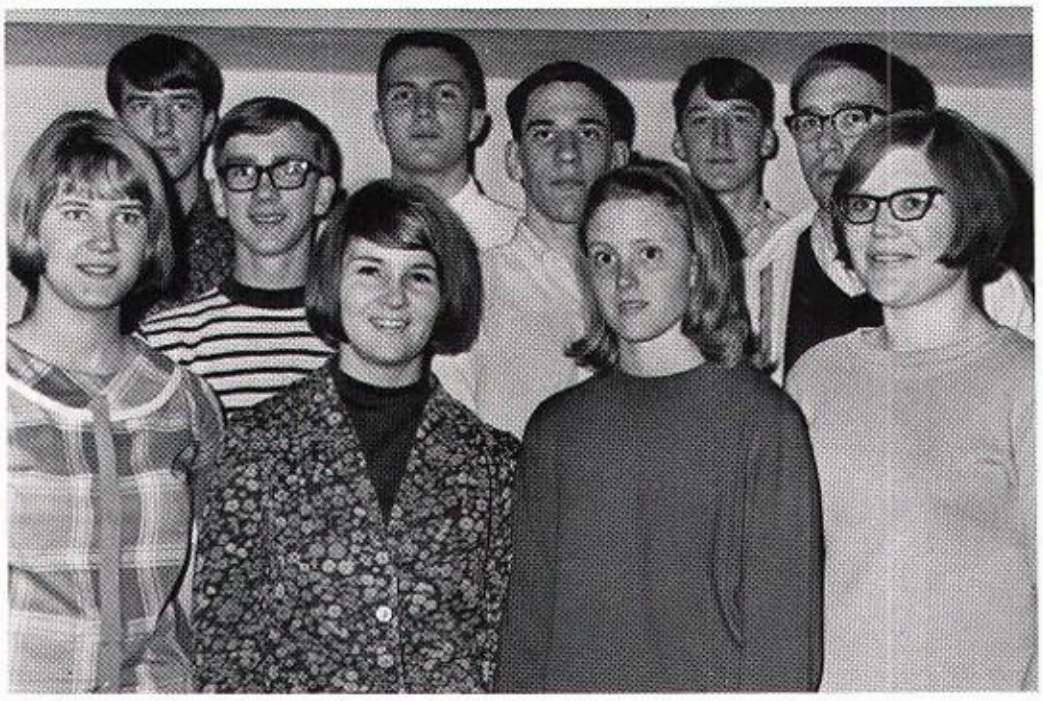
Awards Day presentations to worthy Thespians were: Charol Smith and Steve McCann, best actress and actor, Becky Faber and Jim Hardman, best supporting actress and actor, Ken Seymour, best crewman, Kathy Roberts, Thespian of the Year, and John Miller, most outstanding Thespian.



Thespian's Hold Banquet May 12

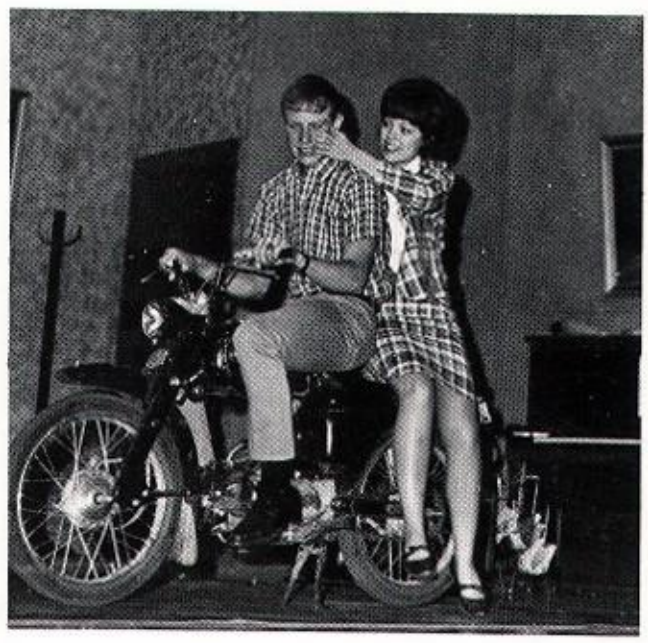
Senior actors and actresses who presented "Brother Goose" include (on floor) Charol Smith, Becky Faber, Susie Prescott, Pam Gidley, Dianne Fisher, and Kathy Roberts. Standing are John Miller, Denise Huey, Steve McCann, Jim Hardman, and Ross Kuhre. Not pictured is Jule Sturzenegger. The play was presented Nov. 3.

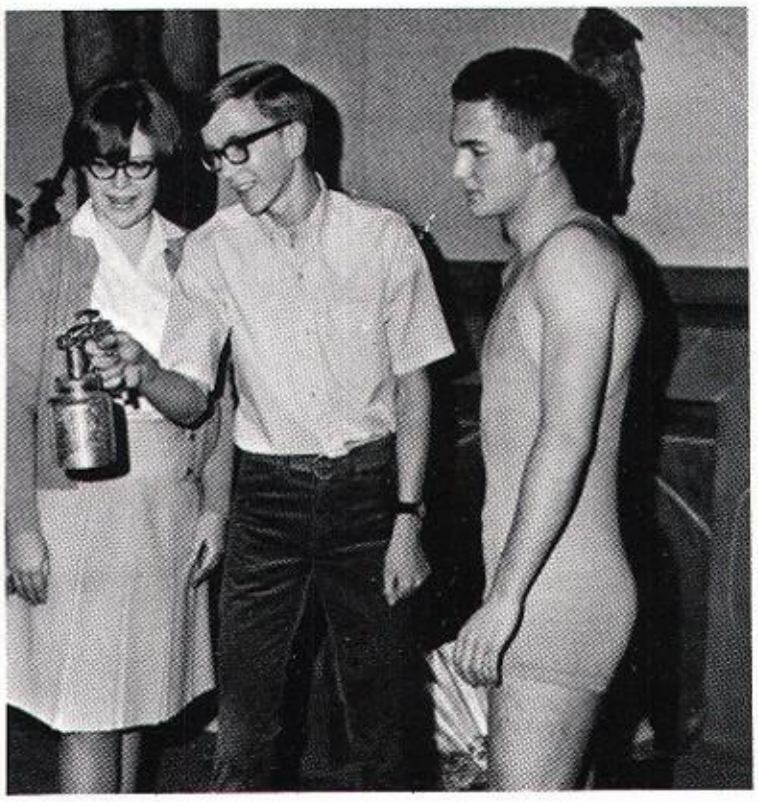


John Miller's attempts to woo Denise Huey are momentarily halted as he receives a sudden slap during the senior play.

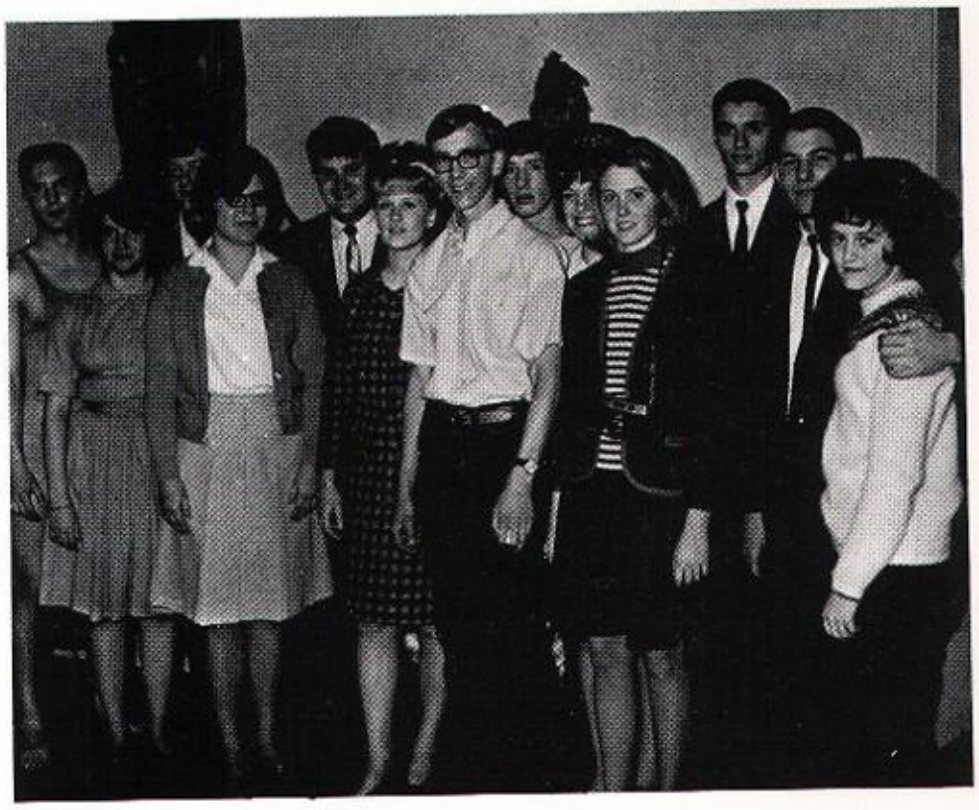
Five Dramatic Productions Staged

Student director Connie Hawks helps Mr. Turbot with "Brother Goose."

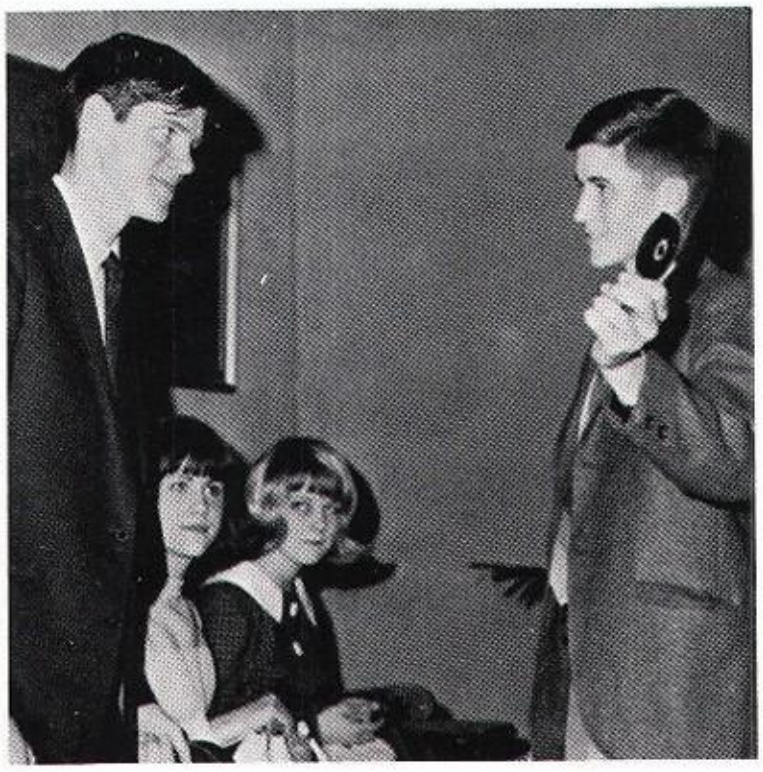
Mr. Jannings presents a trophy and transistor radio to Glennda Pennebaker who sold the highest number of tickets for the junior class play.



Mike Wolfe explains his money-making ability to other members of the cast of "Mr. Barry's Etchings." Connie Holmes, Pat Grinnell, and Charlie Brown look on.

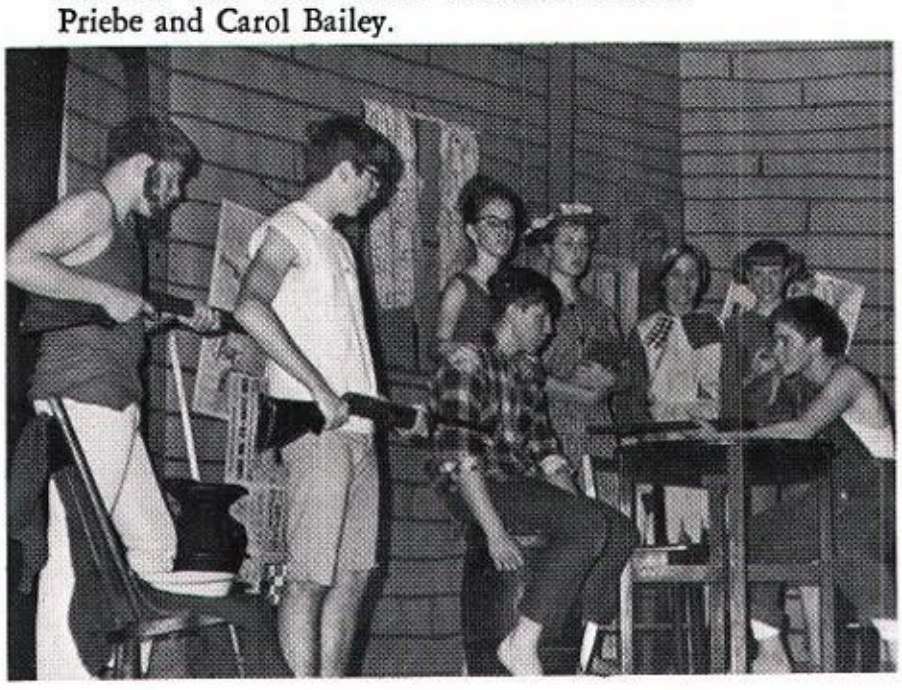


The cast of the Junior Class Play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings", included Charlie Brown, Marcia Rule, Dennis McDonald, Pat Grinnell, John Carl, Vicki Blazek, Mike Wolfe, Duane Stowell, Paula Krings, Ann Van Arkel, Gary Boortz, Rocky Fowler, and Connie Holmes.



In the Sophomore play "Let's Make Up", John Beecher and Dan Coen mimmick Denise Priebe and Carol Bailey.

A sad day at the races was the theme of the Sophomore play "I'm a Fool". Jeff Coen, Chris Prescott, Andy Hoskinson, and Dave Seymour watch an exciting point in the race.

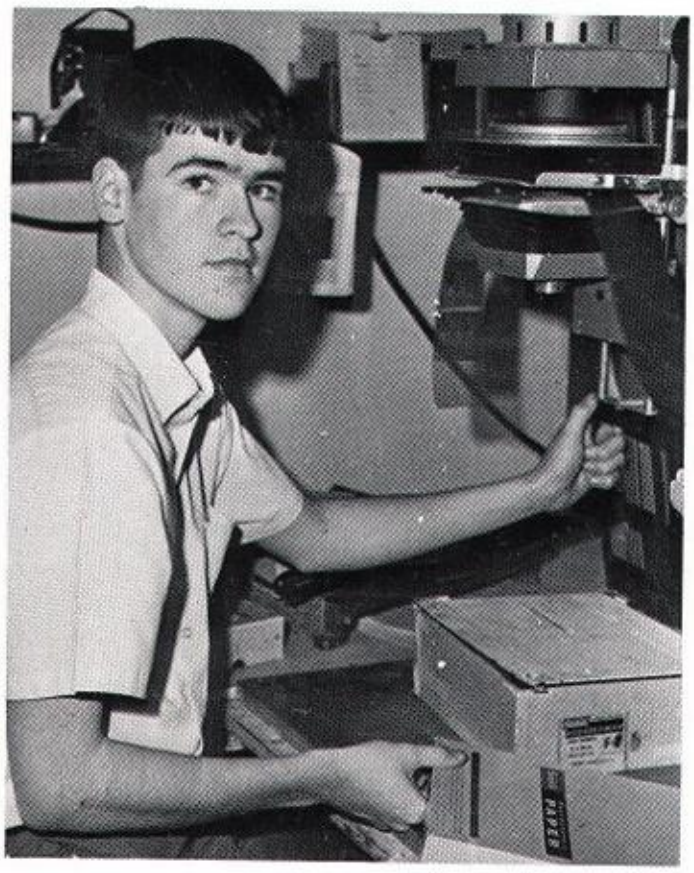


Actors in the hillbilly comedy, "Itchin' to Get Hitched" were Sophomores Mick Cruise, Mike Brown, Melissa Davidson, Diana McGill, Mary Daughton, Charlotte Woods and Arlin Beemer.

First semester Arrow staff included Don Herbert, Dawn Buxton, Denise Huey, Pam Schrodt, Debbie Priebe, and Mary Richards. Editor Charol Smith and Dianne Fisher are on top of the car.

Arrow sponsor Darline Green and second semester editor Pam Schrodt discuss plans for the paper.

Journalism Students Publish Arrow



Photographer Jim Larkin joined the dark room staff his junior year to help take pictures for the Arrow and the Crest.

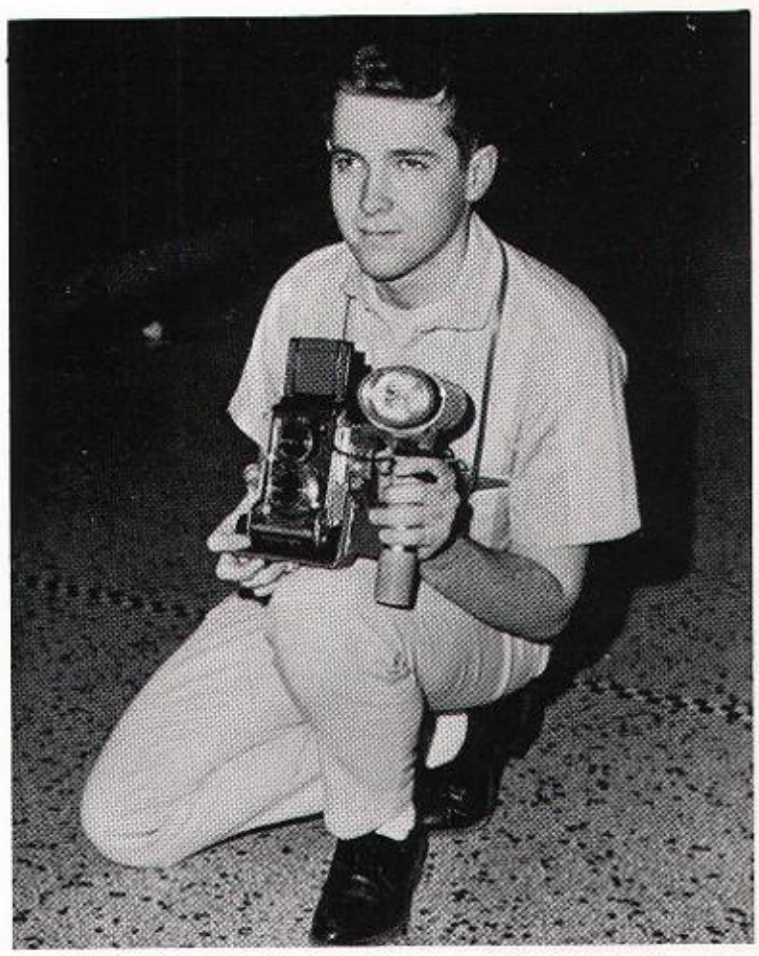
Sharon Smtih consults Crest Club sponsor Harley Joens about her pages.

These 26 ambitious Crest Club members helped produce the 1967 Crest. First row includes Tom Pontow, vice-president Dianne Fisher, president Denise Huey, secretary-treasurer Martha Wallace, Martha Carlson, and Anita. Wear. In the second row are Allyson Gault, Shirley Tepley, Susan Osmun, Sharon Howe, Angie Hook, and Rita Baker. In the third row are Pam Paxton, Susie Prescott, Kathy Kuta, Rhonda Fry, Julie Berg, Carolyn Crecelius, and Lynda Anderson. In the last row are Jim Larkin, Tom Hawks, Sharon Evans, Sharon Smith, Chris Ahern, Judy Robinson, and Ruth Raymond.

Crest Created

Crest editors Dianne Fisher, Denise Huey and Martha Wallace examine some pictures taken by Jim Larkin.



Mark Tedrow has taken pictures for the journalism and yearbook staff for two years.

Second Squad and Varsity cheerleaders for the 1966-67 season include Susan Cederburg, Mary Daughton, Kaye Sandeman, Judi Downing, and Dawn Huey, front row; Lynda Winter, Jane Evans, Ann Van Arkel, Kathy Herzog, Karen Tullis, Paula Krings, and Sandee Horning, back row. Varsity captains are Karen Tullis and Jane Evans.

Spirit Boosters

Kathy Herzog and Jane Evans get set to boost their voices through a mighty megaphone.

The Red and White Peppers again performed an entertaining double duty this year by both marching and cheering at home games.

Linda Eddy, Nancy Kessler, co-captain, LaDonna Pettit, and Linda Winkler, captain, finish a precision drill for an approving audience.

A Peek at the Peppers

Eyberg, V. Martin, C. Boyd.

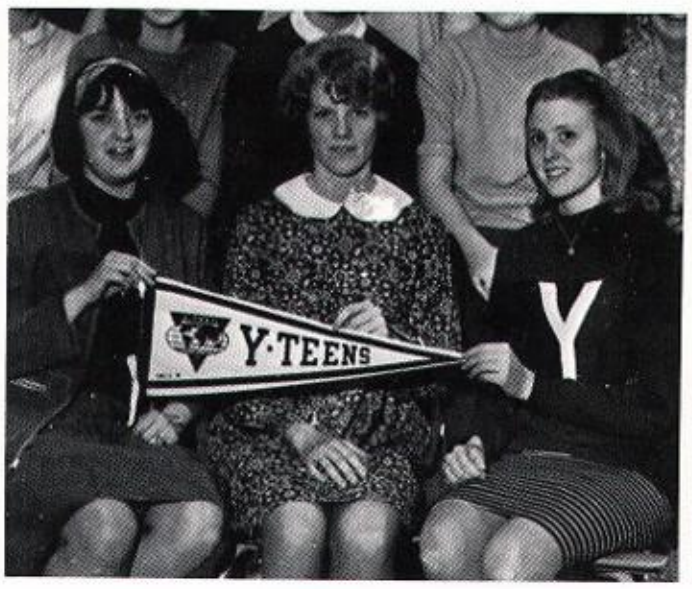
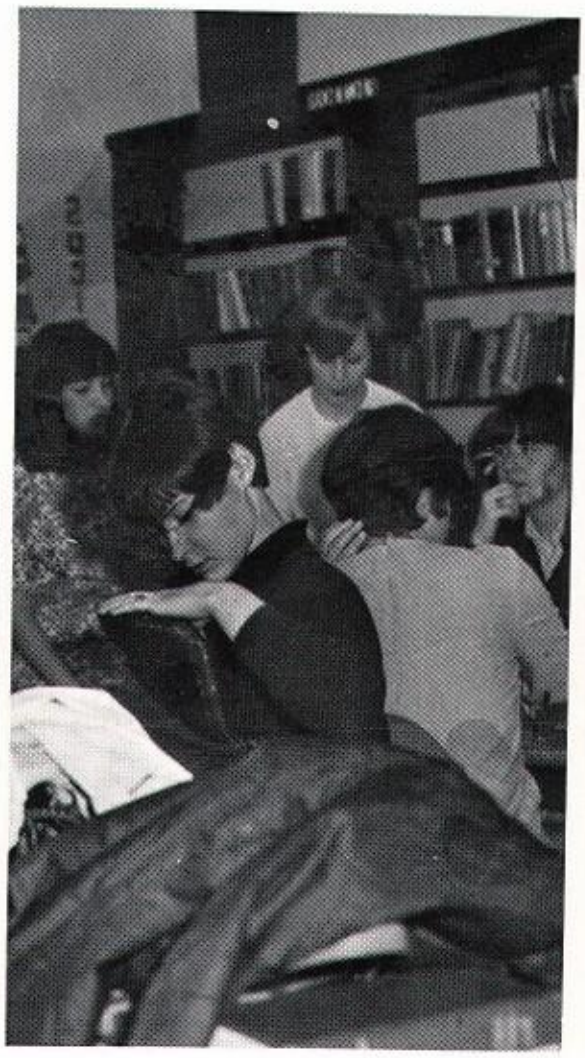
Y-Teens Project New Images

Not an unusual sight in the library is this conference between this year's President, Linda Winkler and sponsor Miss Ruth Van Tress. Linda lead this year's program with many vigorous and entertaining projects for the school and community.

Below, are next year's officers. From left to right are Sec.-Treas. Connie Emerson, Pres. Nancy Kessler, and V. Pres., Ann Van Arkel.

At right, the girls plan for the football game, April Fools Dance, March of Dimes Drive, and various other skits they performed for various school functions.





Future Nurses Strive in New Hospital

Seated, Lynda Anderson, Martha Carlson, Pam Schrodt, Jane Harpin, Lynda Winter, Connie Hawks, and Debbie Priebe; Standing, Bill Wimmer, Anita Wear, Charles Brown, Karl Knock, Dale Gordon, Jeff Brotherton, Phyllis Spring, and Phil Cunningham. Ann Van Arkel and Lynn Sandeman, Junior initiates, were not present at the induction.

President Charol Smith congratulates Principal L. V. Foley after his induction as an honorary member of the Society at the Awards Day initiation.

Carrying the torch of knowledge, Nancy Chapman escorts Verna Tallmon to the stage. Verna wears the Society's emblem given to each new member.

Awards Day Assembly Honors Many Students

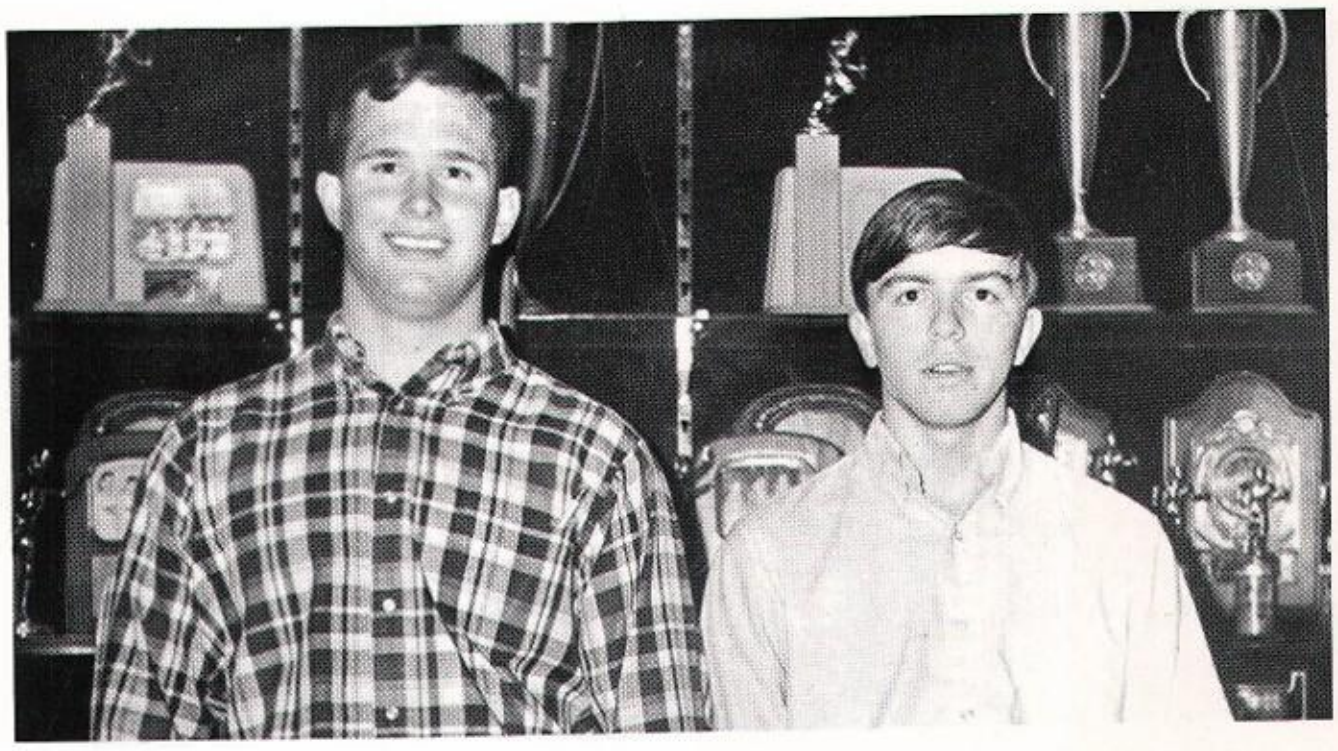
The annual Awards Day assembly held May 19 honored cheerleaders, Future Nurses, United Nations and Time test winners, librarians, office girls, vocal and band letter winners, outstanding journalism students, yearbook editors and photographers, C-Club letterwomen, home economics, outstanding science student, and scholarship winners.

Karl Knock and Mark Tedrow congratulate each other on being chosen to represent Creston at Boys State this summer, to be held at Camp Dodge in Des Moines. The boys were chosen by the American Legion.

Denise Huey shows Principal L. V. Foley her Citizenship award and medal. She was chosen by the faculty to be given the American Citizenship Award from the Bar Association. Arnold Kenyon, President of the Association presented the plaque.

Journalism awards were presented to Anita Wear, Charol Smith, Mark Tedrow, Mari Richards, and Pam Schrodt. Charol, Mark, and Mari won places in the Iowa High School Press contest for Arrow stories and photography.

Vice-Principal Ina Napier accepts a gift to the school from American Field Service student Mia Dehopere. Besides the books, Mia also presented a small statue from her native Belgium. Rosa LLanos, International Student Exchange participant, and Mia were both given service pins at Awards Day.



Athletic award winners were Jack Lynn recipient of the Kent Kunuth award and Jerry Willets the Pipin Poppa award for an outstanding wrestling record.

Jeff Coen and Kylene Wilke, two of the sophomores who served for the prom, offer the Golden Buddha some iced tea.

Rick Thompson and Dan Coen clown around while waiting to serve, above.

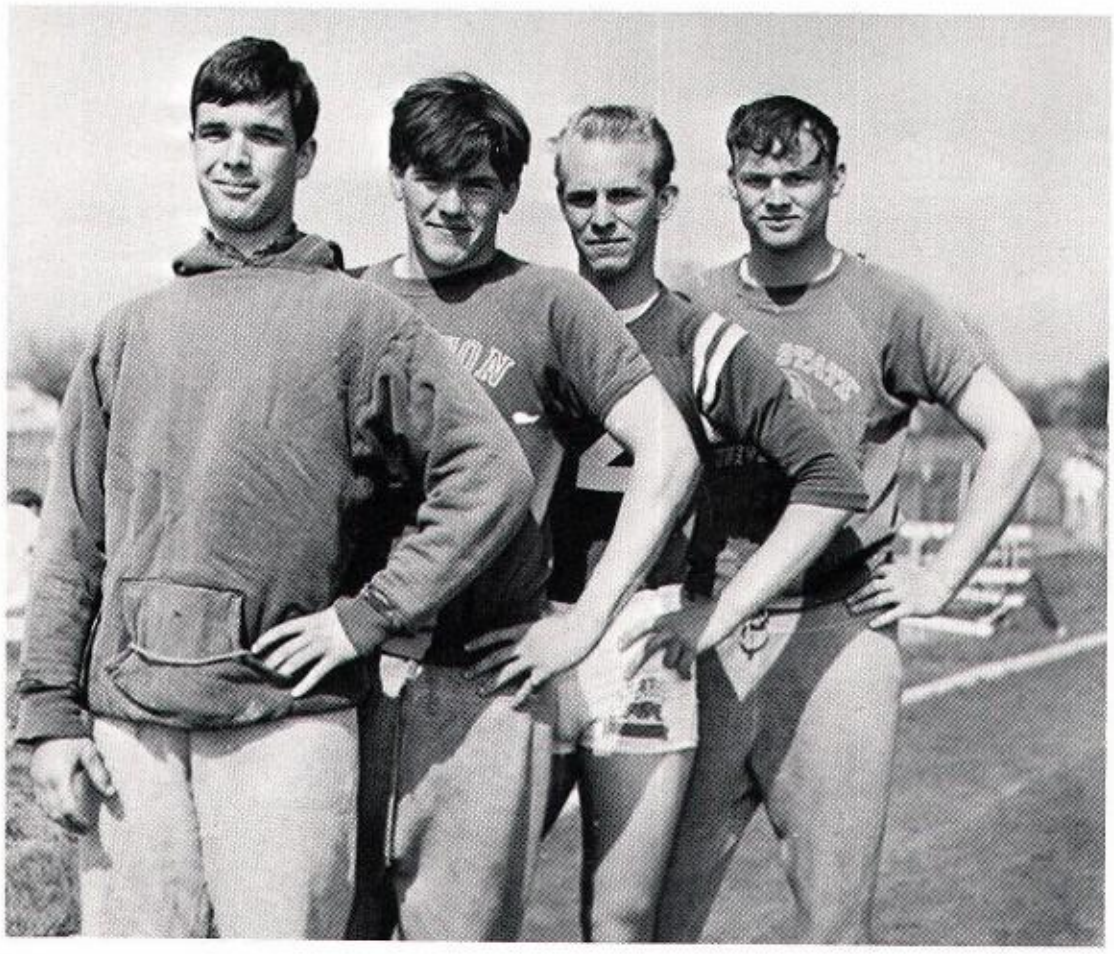
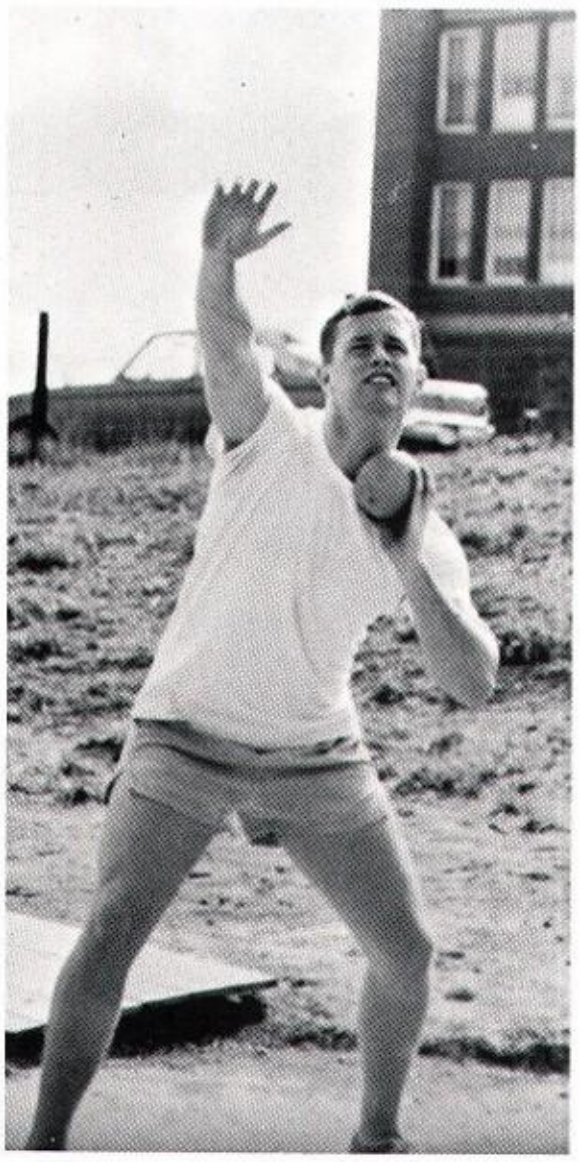
440-Relay Team Qualifies for State Meet at Fort Dodge

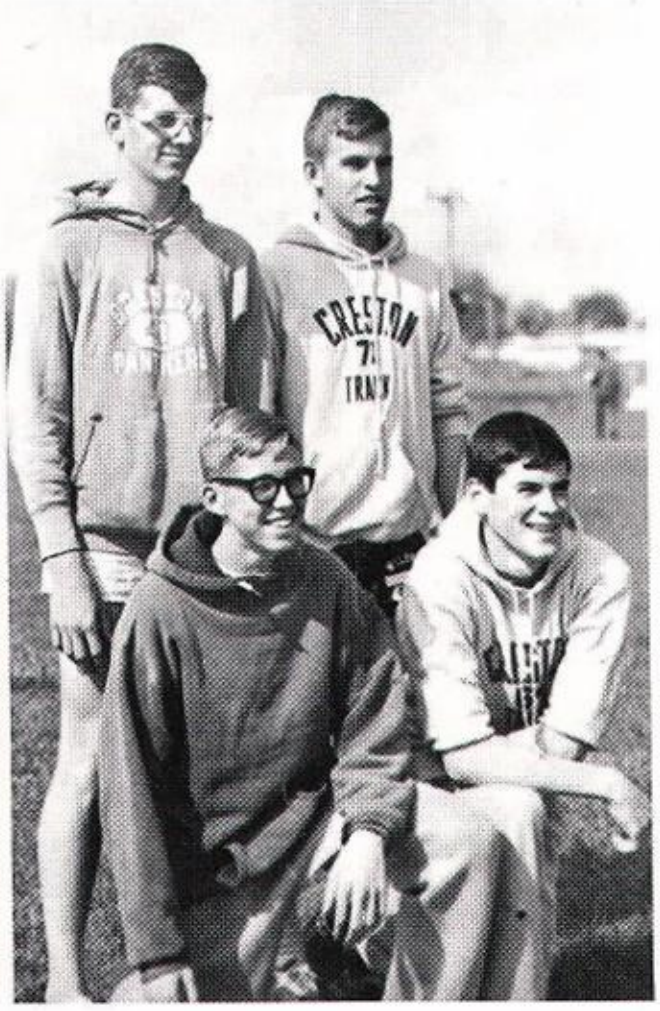


The 440-relay team of Tom Rouh, Dennis Cassady, Dave Baker, and Eddie Jackson travelled to the State Track Meet in Fort Dodge May 20. With a time of 45.5 they were rated number seven in Southwest Iowa and were third in the conference.



JACK LYNN heaved the shot 52' 5¾" to set a new school record. Undefeated in the conference, he won the Hawkeye Seven title for the second consecutive year.

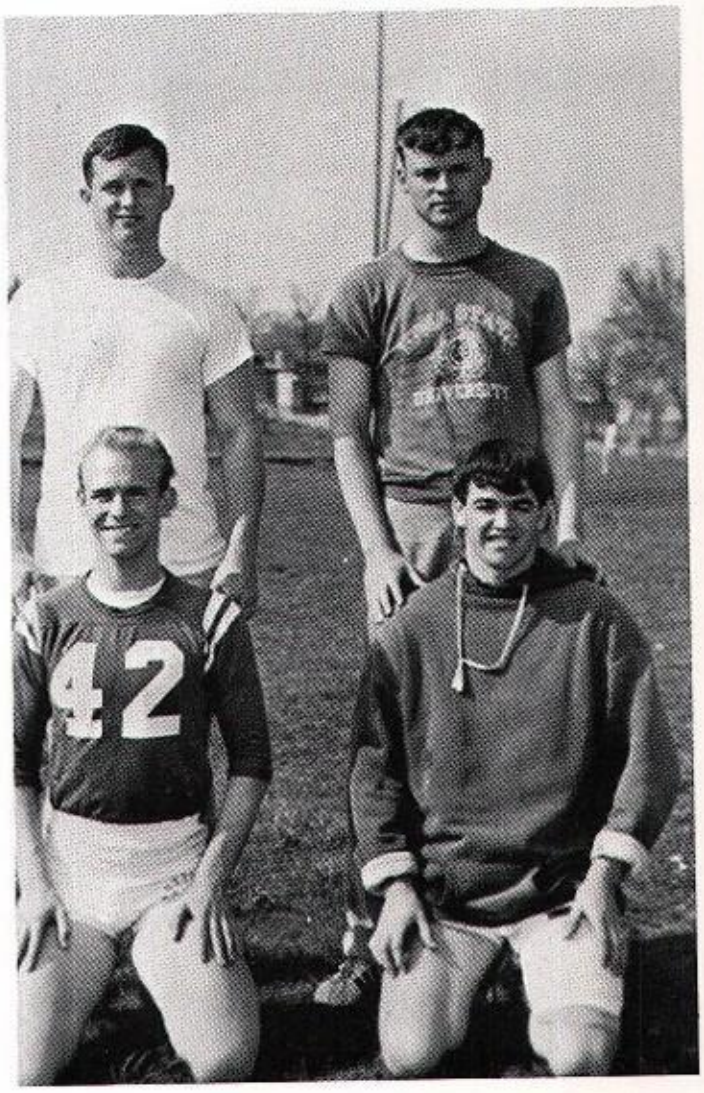
EDDIE JACKSON, conference title winner in the 100-yard dash, was Creston's fastest sprinter, his best time being 10.3.



The two-mile relay team turned in the 8th best time in Southwest Iowa and was third in the conference. Steve Sharp and Doug Rall were permanent members while Marty Spriggs, Ted Akers, and Keats Gaiser (not pictured) alternated.

Pole vaulter DON ULM set the school record at Glenwood when he vaunted to a height of twelve feet.

TOM ROUH, who ran the low hurdles, was a consistent scorer for the Panther track squad.



The 880-relay team, Jack Lynn, Eddie Jackson, Dave Baker, and Ron Webb, placed third at the Crest Relays and was a regular scorer at other meets.

Jim,
Remember
all the times together
we've spent hoping & praying (and sometimes crying)
this year. I'm really sorry
I'm such a lousy friend!
To a swell friend. Hang in there.

Linda,
I'm not much for writing notes but I'll give any thing a whirl. There's not much a person can say to a girl like yourself except, the best of everything you do.
Your friend
Gail

P.S. Well since it's our senior year I'll write more to dear friend. Spread my guilt + I guess I owe you that. It hasn't been the same

Smile Love always,
M.

Dear Gail,
Thanks so much for remembering me in your episode of memories. I wouldn't trade them
for anything.
Sure wish we could be together
Love,
Linda

LINDA,

To a real sweet kid and fellow retreatant. I don't really know what to say - we haven't done much together. (not yet anyway)
I suppose we should remember good old C.Y.O. and Father Frank, and I'll never forget that retreat. (it was gobs of fun)
Well I'm really not saying anything so I'll stop writing. GOOD LUCK !! (in everything)

Love ya
Tom

Linda.
Remember all the great times
we had together especially those while playing "Dad" record. HA. I'll pop your head off. Good luck in the future!
Stay in touch forever
Sandee Miller

Remember, Linda, I'll always be your friend. Have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Stay in touch. Love, Karen

Linda:
I hate to mess up books, but those are the breaks. I really like you Linda, if that means much. Youre a real nice gal but then youll get a chance. How's Pete (whoever he is)?
Well see ya.
Janet.

Linda,
We'll never forget our "Great" Soph. year. The wonderful and unforgettable moments in Speech I. Ms. Fuller especially. Your a cool kid to be with and you'll always be dear to my heart!
Ced

Linda,
Your a great gal. I'll remember ya as a sweet kid. Remember me & good luck!
Just me,
Dave

Linda
To a gal I never got to know very well
but wish I did!
Be good in your
last 2 years at C.H.S.
~~Hope~~ Best of luck
Bill H.

Linda-
well now did it to me!! I knew this page of us
that neither of us will ever forget. Enquirk
dear Harlem. Blast. Luck
Judy
Kris

Linda,
you asked for it so you can have it. I'll miss up your book with my terrible writing. Don't forget the trip to Omaha and all the fun we had in S.H. last year. Love ya,
Jan

Kris,
Don't ever forget
all the FUN times
in Geo. & Be good & have fun!!
Sand

Linda,
Have a good summer
and don't work too hard Remember the good times
we had in Geography class. Love ya,
Jo

Dear Linda,
Thanks for being a friend
Have a good summer
Love ya,
Jo

Linda,
Have a good summer
Love ya,
Jo

Linda,
Have a good summer
Love ya,
Jo

Linda,

Linda,
You're nuts!!
(But we all love ya anyway!) whenever we get together
there's always trouble or fun. (phy. ed. + study hall)
Hope we can have more good times in the future.....
I'll always be your friend
Love, dawn. 88

Linda, Keep always smile and your will always have great
you will, its been PALS friends, Bonnie fun with you.

Linda,
I can't think of much to say except you're a really great girl
And a good friend and there sure has been a lot of good times that we've had with CYO and the hayride and I won't forget them.
Love ya,
Mike

Linda,
We had alot of fun taking each others pulse - best of luck always - you'll make a great nurse - Ruth

Linda, We had a lot of fun and Remember the hay ride
Best of luck in the future
Mark.

Linda,
Remember the hay
ride Best of luck
in the future

Linda thought since I've known you still don't know even grade 9 you were great and that you were a great girl except remember Hadley?
to be around P.E. last year?
How about P.E. last year with hitting your racket. Did we ever play tennis pass all the skills, I really it!! Be good and keep smiling.
Love,
Norm (great tennis player HA)

Lots of luck in the future
Rick

Dear Linda,
Hello and welcome to a real fun summer
of lots of R + R
Later
Chris

Dear
I hope you had a good summer.
Have a fun year
at high school.
Love
